

Colorado Springs Chapter, CO Article for Officer Review Magazine

TITLE: Eagle Courts of Honor for MOWW Eagle Scout Certificates of Recognition

COL Steve Shambach, USA (Ret), Colorado Springs Chapter Commander, and Col Kermit Neal, USAF (Ret) were privileged to attend three Eagle Scout recognition ceremonies in February and March for new Eagle Scouts from Troop 149 and Troop 194.

Col Neal and COL Shambach with Troop 194

COL Shambach presenting to Troop 149

The Colorado Springs Chapter is very proud to have had the opportunity to present the MOWW Certificate of Recognition in person to a combined total of 13 Eagle Scouts from both Troops. The Scout's Eagle Projects provided assistance to local area schools, churches, and veterans organizations, and the new Eagle Scouts are outstanding examples of dedication and willingness to serve others. COL Shambach and Col Neal each gave a brief mention of the mission of the MOWW, and our motto of "It is better to serve than to be served". Approximately five percent of young adults who are in the Scouting program receive the rank of Eagle Scout! In addition to attending Eagle Courts of Honor, the Colorado Springs Chapter is in the process of coordinating with the Pathway to the Rockies Scouting Council for MOWW recognition at the Annual Eagle Recognition Banquet. We will also be presenting Certificates to Girl Scout Gold Award Winners at a state-wide recognition ceremony in coordination with the Denver Chapter of MOWW.