TITLE: Colorado Springs Chapter sponsors Police Department Medal of Valor Dinner

The Colorado Springs (COS), Colorado Chapter of MOWW sponsored a table at the Colorado Springs Police Department 37th Annual Medal of Valor Dinner on September 23 at the Broadmoor Hall. The Mayor, City Council members, local government representatives, citizens and businesses gathered to honor the valor and bravery of officers whose actions saved lives. COS MOWW Companions George Reed, Ulysses Swift, Richard Peters and Paul Willey, accompanied by guests Colonel Molly Spedding, Beverly Swift, and Aidan Peters participated in and hosted police officers for this celebratory event. Companion George Reed had a prominent role as the Chairman of the Board of Directors/Officers of the Police Foundation that organized this event. Twenty-two officers were recognized with Medal of Valor or Distinguished Service Medals for risking their lives in officer involved shootings or putting their lives at risk saving citizens of Colorado Springs.
